

GROUND RULES FOR THE CHAIRMAN OF PNSG

Ground Rules:

- Confidentiality (except where required by law)
- Treat everyone equally, with courtesy and respect.
- Promote the interests of PNSG.
- Comply with laws and regulations (not only but including the ACNC) and previous agreed decisions made by PNSG.
- No physical or verbal abuse, bullying or violence.
- Cell phones silenced.
- One person talking at a time/no interruptions/no side conversations.
- No conversations monopolies.
- Only have conversations that will directly or indirectly benefit the PNSG membership.
- Arrive on time, stay entire time, end on time.
- Group members strive to be non-judgmental and accepting of others.
- No advice or advise with care.
- Regular attendance.
- Group members not allowed to attend if under influence of non-prescribed drugs or alcohol.

Above all – Respect Each Other.

For the Chairman of The Peripheral Neuropathy Support Group to meet the above requirements and obligations the support of PNSG Management and attending Members is imperative.

The above was discussed at February 2024's monthly meeting and was passed unanimously.
